

Los Angeles Times

SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 21, 1943

The Weather The United States Weather Forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity today: Partly cloudy, mostly clear, with a few clouds in the morning. High 65, low 45.

VOL. LXII

By The Way with BILL HENRY

WASHINGTON — You will probably be anxious to know what it is like when such a procedure-making thing occurs as Secretary Cordell Hull reports to Congress. Well—it's like this.

AT AIRPORT—Constance Bennett, actress, was greeted on return home yesterday by her youngest children, Gail, 2, and Linda, 5, after Florentine estate settlement.

AT AIRPORT—Constance Bennett, actress, was greeted on return home yesterday by her youngest children, Gail, 2, and Linda, 5, after Florentine estate settlement.

Union Again Stands Aloof

With union officials still failing to appear at the today hearing on charges of racial discrimination against Negro shipyard workers by the Fair Employment Practices Committee came to a close yesterday in the Embassy Auditorium.

The charges were that Local 500 of the International Union organized the Negro shipyard workers in an Auxiliary which did not give them full union membership.

Officials of the local and of the International Union were requested to appear at the hearing, but none appeared.

Miss Bennett Returns Home With Fever

Although suffering a temporary attack of influenza, Constance Bennett, the actress, returned to her Los Angeles home yesterday after a brief stay in the hospital.

Caltech May Get Foundation Fund

Proposals to transfer the assets of the Human Resources Foundation, reported to be in the hands of the California State Board of Education, are being considered by the board.

Child's Death Led to Glend Trouble

Physical assets of the foundation include extensive acreage in Glend, Calif., and property owned by the late Mrs. Frank Walker, according to the report.

Former Detective Killer Self on Street

Believed to have been driven from the street by a police officer, a former detective killer himself was seen on the street in Los Angeles yesterday.

Theater Released

The War Department has transmitted to the Park Commission copies of a routine of the Greek Theater in Griffith Park, which had been used by the Army.

BY A WHITEYEN BROTHER

If one nation shows another enough thanks God for His special war-torn, we are that nation.

Nine Southland Men Killed on Battle Fronts

Names of nine Southland men killed in action in the Pacific theater were announced yesterday by the War Department.

Traffic Request Filed

A proposal by Howard J. Galt, president of the Los Angeles Automobile Club, for a ban against parking of automobiles on one side of the street because of the narrowness, has been filed by the Police Commission.

Defense Corps Drive Opens

The Women's Auxiliary and Defense Corps of America has opened a drive today.

Two Southland Flyers Decorated

It was announced that two Southland flyers were decorated for their part in the victory over the Japanese in the Philippines.

Johnny Green Weds Actress Bunny Waters

In a simple ceremony attended by only a few friends, actress Bunny Waters and Johnny Green were married yesterday.

Thanksgiving Feasts Slated

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Marines Rescue Chinese Baby Locked in Market

A Chinese baby, locked in a market stall, was rescued by American Marines in the Philippines.

ALL'S WELL—Daniel Hall, left, prepares to take son, Wellington Hall, 2, from Pic. Ben Collier of the movies. Wellington was rescued from lock-up market by Collier and Pfc. Pete Miskovich, also of the movies. Hall was the market.

HUNTINGTON GARDENS KEEP UP BOTANY TESTS

Having trouble bringing along the 24 Beckley Variety, gardeners at Huntington Gardens are keeping up their botany tests.

Band of Faith

A band of faith is being formed in the Huntington Gardens area to help the needy.

Defense Corps Drive Opens

The Women's Auxiliary and Defense Corps of America has opened a drive today.

Two Southland Flyers Decorated

It was announced that two Southland flyers were decorated for their part in the victory over the Japanese in the Philippines.

Johnny Green Weds Actress Bunny Waters

In a simple ceremony attended by only a few friends, actress Bunny Waters and Johnny Green were married yesterday.

Thanksgiving Feasts Slated

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

IN EIGHT PARTS—136 PAGES

Part II—LOCAL NEWS—8 Pages

TIMES OFFICE

202 West First Street Los Angeles 53, Calif.

CITY NEWS—EDITORIAL

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.

Five dinners for thousands of homeless persons, union members and other needy people are being served at Protestant churches the last before Thanksgiving.